PREFACE.

The Evanston and Wilmette Directory for 1894 is presented to its patrons nearly two months earlier than the directories of preceding years.

Between its covers are over eleven thousand names (the wife's name not being counted).

The work of compilation was nearly doubled on account of the recent changes in the system of house numbering in Evanston. To insure accuracy in this important feature, all the slips returned by the canvassers were taken to the office of the Commissioner of Public Works, and, with the kind assistance of Capt. R. E. Orr, who had charge of the work of numbering the city, each slip was checked up with the official record. Some cases were found where house owners had put up incorrect numbers. The city officials promptly notified all who were in error and the wrong numbers were corrected.

To still further insure accuracy, the mail carriers of Evanston, and the clerks of the South Evanston postoffice, were employed to go over the proof sheets of the book and check the names and addresses.

Thanking our patrons for their generous patronage, we trust that this book will meet their requirements.

Very sincerely,

J. C. WINSHIP & CO.
